

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

TRP400 – MSc Pre-requisite in Trade Policy and Trade Law

Duration: 6 weeks (online)

Languages: English & French options

Cost: Fully Paid - Scholarship

Mode of Learning: Virtual/Online

COURSE OVERVIEW & BENEFITS

This 6-week online programme prepares candidates for admission into the Postgraduate Diploma (PGDA) and MSc in International Trade Policy & Trade Law accredited by Lund University of Sweden.

Modules Covered:

- Introduction to International Trade Law
- Economics of International Trade
- Trade Data Retrieval & Analysis

Successful completion qualifies participants for enrollment in TRP 500 Advanced Academic Courses.

ELIGIBILITY & APPLICATION

- ♦ Graduates in Law, Economics, Social Sciences, or related fields
- ♦ Public/Private Sector Professionals in trade, customs, foreign affairs, or regional integration
- ♦ Civil Society/NGO staff involved in trade policy or advocacy
- ♦ Trade Practitioners seeking policy or academic advancement
- ♦ Prospective applicants to TRAPCA's PGDA or MSc programmes
- ♦ Individuals from LDCs/LICs in Sub-Saharan Africa
- ♦ Fluent in English or French and comfortable with online learning

WHY CHOOSE TRAPCA?

- ♦ Accredited by Lund University (Sweden)
- ♦ Tailored for Anglophone and Francophone LDCs/LICs in Sub-Saharan Africa
- ♦ Delivered by expert faculty with high-quality, multilingual content
- ♦ Proven track record in capacity building
- ♦ Strong alumni community with impact across African trade institutions

HOW TO APPLY

Get more information on the link below:
<https://cutt.ly/YrS0LttV>

As you apply make sure you have gathered together a copy of your First Degree, Results Transcripts, Bio Page of Your Passport and Your brief CV, and convert them into PDF and upload on the application tab as a single

SCAN ME

Phone: +255 272 970 077 | Email: admissions@trapca.org
| Website: www.trapca.org | Location: Arusha, Tanzania

